Grand Has Unusual Bill "At the Golf Links," Today

When the curtain went up at the Grand theatre yesterday afternoon there was one of the best vaudeville shows seen here in many weeks. As the chief offering a musical comedy act of elaborate nature. It is presented by George Lee and Girls and is entitled "At the Golf Links."

Clever songs, dances and plenty of comedy are provided. George Lee, as the principal comedian, is one of the best-known musical comedy stars in vaudeville today. Mr. Lee has the assistance of a young man who plays the "straight" and a bevy of charming and talented girls.

Not only did Mr. Lee select these young women for their good looks, but also for their high-class singing voices. The result is real harmony in the chorus numbers. The rest of the show gives promise of being right in line in point of excellence with the headline number.

Ray Colin, one of the best ventriloquists ever featured here, was present a new and original act. Cora and Bert Simpson offer a breezy comedy skit, entitled "His Wife," an affair replete with all manner of real humor. The Musical Kuehns not only offer songs and whistling numbers, but big class yodeling and violin playing.

Harry Sterling, billed as a versatile entertainer, more than lives up to his billing. He does juggling and dancing while keeping up a line of funny patter that ends his act with unusual as well as entertaining selections on the guitar.

Bert Carl and Beth Rhell are a genuine hit in their singing and dance act. Carl is as nimble-footed as a rabbit and he executes with the aid of his strikingly-attired partner a number of extremely difficult steps with rare ability. Their offer is declared to be thoroughly refined and having the sort of class all the way through that makes powerful appeal to an audience.

The Chemawa Indian Training school basketball team defeated the Dallas team by a score of 29 to 23 in an exciting game played at Chemawa Saturday evening. The Indians had the best of the game from the start as the score at the end of the first half was 14 to 9 in their favor.

Attention of lyceum patrons is called to the closing concert tomorrow night by the Schumanns.

Al Jennings at the Oregon theatre yesterday drew no large houses, all of which rather indicates that a movie showing a first class train robbery with the personality of Al Jennings will get the business as well as movies of the type of "Inspiration" which did a land office business here several weeks ago.

This is the week, 45c Golden Gate coffee, 2 1/2 pound tin for 75c at Roth Grocery company.

David F. Wagner, an old resident of the city, received a letter yesterday plainly addressed to "David F. Wagner, Salem, Oregon," and upon opening it, found it was intended for somebody else. This is the first intimation that Mr. Wagner ever had that there was another man of his name in this city or vicinity and he would like very much to meet him.

Dr. F. C. Hagel has for three years been perfecting a new cereal product and will give a demonstration of it in room 21-22 in the Bush-Breyman building over Weller Bros. store this afternoon at 5 o'clock, to a number of merchants and business men. It is a combination of Oregon grown food products, principally rye and barley. The doctor thinks he has discovered in this a product that is a real substitute for coffee.

Joe Turney and Harry Forb were shy of enough coin to raise them above the class of vagrants when arrested by the Salem police yesterday and this morning were given five days in the city jail by Recorder Elgin. The heavy storm last night brought in 12 sleepers who cast their lot with the city jail sanitary couches rather than sleep under a pile of ties.

A deal was made today by which Painless Parker becomes the owner of the dental offices of Dr. W. A. Cox. He will enlarge the offices and conduct them under the now famous Painless Parker methods, which have made the name of Painless Parker almost a household word on the Pacific coast.

The Polk-Yamhill-Marion County Medical society will meet tomorrow evening in the medical building of Willamette university for their regular monthly session. The paper of the evening will be read by Dr. Thomas M. Joyce of Portland, on "Diagnosis of Goiters." A discussion on the subject will follow the reading of the paper.

Not satisfied with their winning two games out of three from the players of Webfoot Camp No. 65 at Portland, the Salem boys called for more. The Multnomah players from camp No. 77 accommodated the Salem players but they fared no better than the Webfoot boys.

DO YOU NEED GLASSES?

If You Do Here's Something to Remember

The right kind of lenses will help your eyes.

The wrong kind will hurt your eyes. The right kind will stop headaches. The wrong kind will give you more. A careful, thorough examination is important and often shows that many who think they need glasses are better off without them.

Such people need my advice—not my glasses.

My work, you see, is not to sell glasses as glasses, but to give you the benefit of my knowledge to supply glasses only when glasses are needed.

"A think is worth precisely what it can do for you, not what you pay for it," says Ruskin.

The cost of my glasses is based on the value they are to you in helping you to see better.

In this day of trained men, it is economy to engage the services of a trained man. After engaging the services of a trained man, it is a waste of money to buy cheap glasses fitted by untrained men in the hope that you will save money.

Cheap glasses are made to make money for those who sell them.

Good glasses are made to make good for those who wear them.

You will safeguard your eyes and pocketbook by having Dr. Mendelsohn attend to your eye wants.

I can fit you in Kryptok or Shur-on eye glasses.

I make no extra charges for examinations and I do not use drops or drugs as they are dangerous. My experience of over 33 years is an asset and is always at your service.

as in this second contest the Salem team defeated the Portland players with a total score of 2072 to 2365.

It has been reported that State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay has been selected as campaign manager in Oregon for Albert B. Cummins, United States senator from Iowa, who is a candidate for the republican nomination for president. A meeting of Cummins supporters was called in Portland today at which Mr. Kay was present in his new capacity.

E. W. Morton, dean of the school of commerce of the University of Oregon, delivered a lecture on "Accounting" to the employees of the public service commission and a number of other commissions at the state house last week end. Professor Morton will give talks on different phases of accounting systems and other commercial work to the state house employees at regular intervals.

The attendance of the public schools in Salem for the month of February was 2831, this being the actual number remaining in the schools at the close of the school month, according to the report of School Superintendent O. M. Elliott. The registered number is 3098 and the average attendance 2829. The percentage of attendance for the month was 93.8. The number of pupils neither late nor tardy was 1753. During the month 182 parents visited the schools. Over the age of 20, there are 32 pupils and none under the age of six, and between ages of 14 and 20 years, the attendance is 1029. Of this number 503 are boys.

After living five months as a member of the Del Rio Cooperative colony, of Southern California, J. P. Warriner, a former resident of Salem, is satisfied that the colony's co-operative plan fits the bill. He is in the city disposing of his property interests here and expects to return to the colony for his permanent home. According to Mr. Warriner, the colony now has 700 members and it requires $1,000 cash to become a working member. After the payment of this amount, each workman receives $4 a day wages which is credited to his account on the books of the colony and against which he can draw for the necessities of life. The Del Rio colony is 80 miles from Los Angeles according to road travel and about 400 on an air line. Mr. Warriner sold his home near New Park last week.

George Palmer Putnam, private secretary of Governor Withycombe, and Miller McGilchrist both put their theories of national preparedness into actual today and enlisted as members of Company M, O. N. G. The recruiting of the local company before inspection has been progressing with leaps and bounds for the last few days and it is probable that the company will number 100 men for the annual inspection Wednesday night. This will be not only the largest company in the history of the local organization but in the state and it goes without saying that Company M will maintain its place as the banner company of the state.
